Dear Parents,

DADAA together with John Curtin Gallery and Place Activation@Curtin is hosting a sensory tactile walking tour of artworks located at Curtin University. The students attending the Learning Centre have been invited to attend the walk as part of the Life Skills program. The students will be attending the tour at 10am on Tuesday 23 May 2017, followed by an art workshop after the tour. The students will be travelling on a coaster bus or taxi to the venue leaving school at 9.00am and returning by 1.30pm.

The students will need the following:

- Morning tea and lunch
- Wear their Christ the King sport uniform
- School hat
- Bring a drink bottle
- Excursion bag

If you have any queries about this outing, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

Antonia Johnstone

Learning Centre Teacher and Coordinator
